Farmingville, NY – On May 7, Councilman Michael Loguercio (center) joined volunteers working on the "South Country Community Leadership Network Extreme Yard Clean-up" and presented them with a Certificate of Appreciation for their work. Each year, the group provides yard clean ups for select residents in the South Country School District. The Councilman secured donations of supplies, including top soil, mulch, gloves and bags for the volunteers who donated their time to help beautify several locations. Assisting with the clean-up were, Dr. Joseph Giani, Superintendent of South Country School District (seventh from left), Sara Ciofaletti (receiving certificate), officers from the Suffolk County Police Department and other community volunteers.
